ŠKODA Fabia Combi ScoutLine: The Popular Estate with new Off-road Look

- › ŠKODA Fabia Combi ScoutLine with rugged off-road appearance
- › Black panelling, powerful bumpers, distinctive alloy wheels
- › Successful model: ŠKODA Fabia sales in Europe increase more than 20% by end of September

Mladá Boleslav, 9 October 2015 – ŠKODA is expanding their emotive ScoutLine range. The brand will be bringing out the ŠKODA Fabia Combi in a ScoutLine version in early 2016. The Fabia Combi ScoutLine scores with a striking off-road appearance, distinctive plastic panelling and stylish alloy wheels. The third-generation Fabia has been very well received by customers around the world. Over the first nine months of this year, Fabia deliveries in Europe increased more than 20% to 124.400 vehicles compared to the same period last year.

The third-generation ŠKODA Fabia has been available on the European market since November 2014 as a saloon, the new ŠKODA Fabia Combi (estate) since January 2015. During this year, the emotional ŠKODA Fabia Monte Carlo and ŠKODA Fabia Combi Monte Carlo were also introduced. The ScoutLine version now adds another expressive Fabia model variant to the Fabia Combi range.

The ŠKODA Fabia Combi ScoutLine features an exciting and adventurous look. Distinctive plastic elements on the front and rear bumpers emphasize the robust design. The fixtures are finished in structured matt-black, the integrated underride protection elements are finished in reflex-silver. For the doorsills and wheel arches, there is also plastic panelling painted with matt-black lacquer on the sides of the vehicle. The exterior mirror housings are finished in reflex-silver. The fog lights and the silver-painted roof rails round off the rugged off-road appearance.

The ŠKODA Fabia Combi Scout Line rolls up on a choice of 16-inch alloy wheels in 'Rock' design or 17-inch alloy wheels in 'Clubber' design. The entire range of colours is available for ScoutLine version of the ŠKODA Fabia. There is a choice of three petrol (55 kW, 66 kW and 81 kW) and three diesel engines (55 kW, 66 kW and 77 kW). All engines comply with the EU-6 emissions standard.

ŠKODA is expanding their Fabia range with the expressive ScoutLine version with off-road look. The ŠKODA Fabia ScoutLine also scores points with all the excellent qualities of the popular small car. The vehicle's combination of modern design, innovative technology and high functionality is impressive. Typically ŠKODA, the car has a generous interior – including having the largest boot in its segment – and high functionality, with up to 17 practical 'Simply Clever' solutions.
